Abstract:

LEKANEE Magazine is a quarterly literary magazine of Pashto Academy Balochistan Quetta. It was released from Quetta on January 2014 under the chairmanship of Syed Khair Muhammad Arif. It aim to promote Pashto Standard Literature, as well as the interpretation of Pashtoon history, Culture, Tradition and national values. It has nothing to do with commercial gain, competition arrogance, political maneuvering and imitation. In the early days of Lekanee magazine, however, his selected Titles were Fiction (Short Stories), Novel, Drama, Essay, Satire and humor, literary research and criticism, Sketch Story, book reviews, mysticism (Tasauf), biographical profile of authors, interviews, letters, poetry and other rare creations, thought full articles and excellent translation have gained immense popularity in the literary circle. After reading all the issues of the quarterly lekanee magazine, it can be said that the path of aesthetics which has been adopted in view of the development and promotion of Pashto literature from its compilation to its publication stages its own example. The quality and prestige of the magazine in the selection of prose articles and poetic creation is a master piece of journalistic literature. The visual and spiritual beauty of the magazine distinguishes the magazine from all the other magazine of pashtoon belt.

Key words: Lekanee, literary magazine, standard literature, journalistic literature, Pashtoon belt.
